"REDS'" APPEAL IN HIGH COURT OPENS, 2 FACE CHARGES

Gene Kane and Harry Buchanan Seek to Reverse Verdict Given in Local Trial

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

Trial Will Write Another Chapter in Labor Day Meeting in Lytle Creek

Another chapter in the story of the activities of the asserted "reds" who lead a program in a Labor Day meeting in upper Lytle creek canyon will be written in the county superior court, beginning this afternoon.

Gene Kane, the versatile prisoner, who lead his own defense in a trial before Judge George R. Crane, and Harry Buchanan were in the higher court today, appealing the decision given by a local jury. Two others arrested with Kane and Buchanan were acquitted by the jury that convicted Kane and Buchanan on charges of disturbing the peace.

An ordinary peace disturbance charge would receive only routine atention, but due to the literature distributed during the local trial and to the many letters and petitions received by Judge Crane since the trial, much interest is being shown in the outcome of the Superior court proceedings.

Demands that Kane and Buchanan be freed of the charges and immediately released from jail were received by Judge Crane in the letters and petitions.

Witnesses and others testifying at the trial more than two months ago declared that Kane and Buchanan defied the government, ridiculed President Roosevelt and his relief program and in general agitated against the government.

Hand bills calling upon the public to stop the trial were circulated in Upland during the proceedings.

The belief has prevailed among officials that propaganda has come from a central source and the local conviction assertedly identified Kane and Buchanan as leaders in a "red" campaign.

Dr. Bert Foster was called to Los Angeles to a meeting of clergy at St. John's church yesterday. There was a celebration of Holy ommunion, after which those present were the guests of the rector, Dr. George Davidson, at lunch. Dr. Foster returned in time for the Layman's Missionary meeting at the M. E. church which was attended by the vestrymen of St. Mark's parish.

NEW INTEREST IN POSTAL BUILDING

Selection of Sites in Other Cities Stirs Effort in Upland

A new interest is today being revived toward a new postoffice for Upland, the latest wave of optimism being started by the government's action in adjacent towns toward the conctruction of federal buildings.

Colton is among the latest communities receiving attention, with Dec. 11 set as the time for the opening of bids for sites for the proposed Colton postoffice. In the meantime, however, Colton persons may submit sites as a gift to the government.

Claremont was also recently mentioned in the southland press as being in line for a new postal building, $51,700 having been allocated for that purpose.

Appraisals were sent from Upland on several local sites to the federal authorities last year. Since then no word has been received, but during the last few days, active Democrats have contacted Los Angeles Bourbons, seeking to get action coming toward Upland.

In more or less of a public poll, persons were asked to designate the most popular location for a federal building here. The property at Second avenue and D street was looked upon with favor as was also the southwest corner of Ninth street and Third avenue.

R. O. Price Tells of Aims To Curtail Poor Fruit Shipments

More strict enforcement of the laws prohibiting the shipment of poor and immature fruit will be one of the goals of the citrus department of the state farm bureau as the result of action taken at the state convention of the bureau in Santa Barbara.

This was the report today of R. O. Price, a state director of the bureau, who has returned from the north. About 30 resolutions were adopted at the conclave, with the various marketing agreements receiving more consideration than any other general topic. The bureau in general is strongly back of the agreements and it has pledged itself to aid in formulating those agreements not yet adopted.

Concerning the law governing the citrus fruit shipments, Mr. Price said that the officials of the various counties have the power to enforce the measure and that the farm bureau citrus department will urge the strict application of the law. A meeting along this line will be held in Riverside tomorrow, he said.

"The farm bureau is supporting the sales tax," Mr. Price said, adding that some newspaper reports carried the impression to the contrary. "Some features we want changed, but in general the bureau is back of the sales tax plan."

Mrs. Price accompanied the local citrus grower to the convention city, returning to Upland late last week.

FINE REPORTS AND TRAVELOGUE HEARD

Hospital Auxiliary Meets in Library—Annual Fruit Shower Given

Several excellent reports that were received with much satisfaction, a generous fruit shower for the hospital and an exceptionally interesting address were the features of the November meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the San Antonio Community hospital held Monday afternoon in the hospital library.

Mrs. G. A. Hanson, president of the Auxiliary, conducted the business meeting during which the reports were made.

Attracting the greatest interest was the statement made by Mrs. Earl H. Johnson, chairman of the sick baby fund, that the recent baby fund week had resulted in the sum of $239.35 being raised for that worthy project. The fund was $55 in debt when the campaign was started and the generous contribution made by all sources, individuals, churches, clubs, various organizations, and the familiar milk bottles, is a boon to those carrying on the work.

Mrs. R. R. Harrington, chairman of the free bed fund, stated that 68 patients have received medical care through that fund.

A report of the committee on surgical dressings was made by Mrs. Chas. V. Barr, chairman who stated that since last May 15,875 surgical dressings have been made.

The canned fruit shower resulted in the hospital pantry being stocked with 259 quarts of canned fruit, 63 glasses of jelly, 23 individual glasses of jelly and a bag of walnuts. The Auxiliary also voted to pay for the turkeys to be served for Thanksgiving dinner at the hospital.

Thompson Webb, headmaster of the Webb School for Boys near Claremont, who was secured as the speaker of the afternoon by Mrs. A. Bradford Whitney, program chairman for the Auxiliary, gave a vivid description of his tour last summer of interesting sections of Arizona and New Mexico, illustrating his story with motion pictures of many of the places visited.

The trip was made primarily to witness the famous Indian snake dance at Walpi, Ariz., and Mr. Webb told in detail of the thrilling and sometimes grewsome scene as the young Indian braves danced with the venomous rattlers and other snakes writhing in their hands and even being held in their mouths. The dancers were bitten numerous times and blood streamed down their faces and bodies. Immediately after the dance the Indians were given a greenish stew to eat and part of the paste was smeared over their wounds to counteract the poison.

Another performance, the butterfly dance, was very beautiful, Mr. Webb said, both dances being prayers to the rain god. In Gallup inter-tribal ceremonies and sports events were witnessed.

Much of Mr. Webb's talk and his motion pictures were devoted to the hazardous trip by burro for many miles into the rugged mountains to see the marvelous Rainbow bridge, a natural, perfectly arched span suspended 300 feet over a canyon.

Mr. Webb's address was so replete with descriptions of thrilling events and beautiful scenes that his audience was reluctant to permit him to conclude.

RED CROSS QUOTA NOT YET IN SIGHT

Mrs. Buffington Appeals for Continued Support as 370 Enrolled

The Upland Woman's club is in the lead today in the contest being held by the four organizations taking membership subscriptions in the annual Red Cross roll call, it was stated today by Mrs. F. C. Buffington, chairman of the roll call.

The Woman's club had secured 110 Red Cross subscriptions at the last accounting, with the Presbyterian church women running a close second with 105. The Methodist women are quite a distance back, having 88 subscriptions. The American Legion Auxiliary has turned in 67 members and has not yet reported from the campaign in Cucamonga and Alta Loma.

Mrs. Buffington stated that to date 370 persons in Upland have placed their names on the Red Cross roll, a number that is highly appreciated.

However, this is 280 short of the local chapter's quota of 650 and Mrs. Buffington earnestly urges that the people of Upland, Cucamonga and Alta Loma, the three communities that will benefit in the distribution of the money, rally to the cause and turn in their subscriptions as quickly as possible.

The local chapter will receive half of the one dollar subscriptions, which will be $325, and in addition all gifts and all but 50 cents of each larger subscription.

This money is badly needed even now, and how much greater will be the need during the winter months!

One of the very best ways for every person who has an income or a job to express appreciation for his good fortune is to give at least one dollar to the Red Cross for the aid of his neighbor who has no job. This money will literally feed the hungry and clothe those who are poorly clad.

The response during the first few days was generous, but there is a decided slackening this week, causing Mrs. Buffington to appeal to all who can possibly do so to join the Red Cross now.

The names of those subscribing since the last report follow:

Harold Cook, W. C. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Brady, Mrs. Una R. Winter, Mrs. Helen W. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Nisbet, Gene Nisbet, Miss Clara Lou Nisbet, Roy Karr, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pehl, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Davis, Theo. Davis, Mrs. Olive Reed, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Whitney, A. B. Whitney Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Paul, Frances Paul, Margaret Paul, John Huehn, Stacy Haines, Mrs. A. R. RETURN OF TAX TO UNEMPLOYED PLAN IS BEING STUDIED

Avery Allen in Los Angeles Today Seeking Method of Reimbursement

COUNTY LOOKS TO PLAN

Details Unknown, But Allen Will Report to County Commission

On a report from Los Angeles that the state and federal government is considering a plan of relieving the unemployed of the burden of paying their taxes during the current financial conditions, Avery Allen, secretary of the Upland chamber of commerce and civic association, was today authorized by the county unemployment relief commission to study the project.

The commission instructed Mr Allen to interview Harry L Jones in Los Angeles.

With the details lacking, little is known here, but in general the plan would relieve those property owners found to be financially destitute from the burden of paying their taxes. It is estimated that the tax paying period would be delayed until normal financial conditions return.

Mr. Avery will report at the next meeting of the commission and the result of his interview with Mr. Jones is awaited with interest.

Rebekahs To Hold Second Nomination at Meeting Friday

In preparation for the election to be held early in December, the second nomination of officers will feature the meeting of Silver Link Rebekah lodge to be held Friday night in the I. O. O. F. hall.

The meeting will open with a contributed dish dinner at 6:30 and the lodge meeting will begin at 7:30 with Mrs. J. F. Haddow, noble grand, presiding.

Electrical Leaders To Meet in Upland

Electrical engineers from all parts of Southern California will be in Upland Jonuary 24 for the meeting of the Southern California chapter of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors.

Ted C. Combs, local member of the group, invited the chapter to meet here for its next session. Meetings are held every two months. Definite meeting arrangements will be made soon.

BUSINESS FIRMS TO PLAN DECORATIONS

Meeting in Draper Chapel on Thursday Night Will Hear Reports

To make plans for decorating in the business district during the Christmas holiday season and to discuss other matters, representatives of Upland business concerns will meet in the J. B. Draper & o. chapel at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

This will be the first meeting of the business men since the business men's division of the chamber of commerce was organized with L. H. Cortright as president and J. H. Siegrist as vice-president.

Miss Lillian Harnish is chairman of the committee to submit a Christmas decoration plan and she will make a report.

Those in charge of the meeting are asking that every business firm in the city have a representative at the emeting.

Plans Are Completed For City's Proposed Reservoirs

Detailed plans for the proposed construction of three water reservoirs were being completed today by Richard G. Manley, city service manager, and he expected to be in Los Angeles tomorrow to file the plans with federal officers in charge of the public works program. Cost of the proposed unemployment relief project, including the reservoirs and additional lines, is $60,000.

Filing of these plans is in accordance with action taken by the city council recently in the city's effort to get a share of the federal funds to be used in public works projects for the relief of the unemployed. The money would come as a loan to the city with the city water department revenue to handle the interest and principal payments.

It is unlikely that any immediate action will be taken by federal officals on the plans, as indicated by the experience of other municipalities.

8-YEAR-OLD GIRL TAKEN BY MEXICAN

Feliz Arrieta Charged With Child Stealing—Arrested in Yuma

Charged with child stealing, Feliz Arrieta, Claremont Mexican, was arraigned before Judge Geo. R. Crane this morning, with his preliminary set for next Tuesday.

He was arrested at Yuma, Ariz., midnight Saturday by officers there, following the warning issued by Chief of Police J. F. Sawyer earlier in the day. He had $202 with him, he having drawn money from a Pomona bank and borrowed what he could before leaving, according to reports to local police.

Arrieta, whose wife and two children reside in Live Oak canyon, Claremont, is reported to have called at the Mrs. Pedra Gutierrez home, Claremont Mexican camp, Saturday morning, asking if her daughter, Carmen, eight years of age, could spend the day with his family, he promising to return her later.

Several hours later Upland police were advised that the man was missing with the girl and after further investigation Mr. Sawyer wired to all likely points, with the Yuma officers making the arrest. Mr. Sawyer returned with the prisoner and the little girl yesterday.

Arrieta has explained the situation to Mr. Sawyer by telling of his plans to go to Arizona and to purchase land for use as a possible chicken ranch. He said he took the girl along for company.

Conviction on the charge carries a prison term of not to exceed 20 years.

CUCAMONGA WATER FIRM IN MEETING

All Directors Re-elected in Session Yesterday With Report Reviewed

All directors of the Cucamonga Water Co. were re-elected at the annual meeting of the group held in the company's office yesterday afternoon.

Annual report of the company was presented with the members and officials discussing various phases of the work. An organization meeting of the directors is expected to be held soon.

On the board are John Klusman, who has served as president; F. A. Lucas, vice-president last year; A. C. Beattie, Harry I. DeBerard and George L. Winter

Joe Gasner Pays $50 on Liquor Law Fine

Joe Gasner has paid $50 as his part of the fine imposed upon him by Judge George R. Crane. Gasner was charged with selling liquor having more than 3.2 per cent alcohol. The fine was $200 with $100 suspended and with $50 additional suspended if he would leave this part of the state within 10 days.

If he fails to leave by Dec. 1, he will either have to pay $50 or spend 25 days in jail, according to Judge Crane's penalty.

Word of Unemployed Relief Project Awaited

No word has been received by the city on its application to the state for funds to be used in filling in a culvert on Euclid avenue north of Nineteenth street and in the widening and grading of Sixteenth and Twenty-second streets.

Business of County Given

C. E. Grier of Upland is today back on the job of directing this county's governmental organization. As chairman of the board of supervisors Mr. Grier returned to his duties in the county seat yesterday after recovering from an illness that has kept him confined for many weeks.

In recent weeks he has been about his home here, but yesterday he returned to the county board and was welcomed back to the leadership of the group.

Various matters before the supervisors are given in brief here.

Curfew on Dances

Dancing in all beer gardens and night clubs and other public places must stop at 1 a. m., according to the terms of an amended law. A week ago the closing time in the proposed measure was midnight. At the request of operators of night clubs, the later law was allowed. It was pointed out, however, that if a majority of persons within a radius of 1000 feet of an amusement place petitioned for revocation of the operator's beer license, that operator must appear before the supervisors and show why his license should not be revoked.

Relief Pay Discussed

At present persons employed with funds from the state and federal government get 40 cents an hour, but there is a plan to cut the pay to 30 cents an hour. The county grand jury favors the lower wage, due to the fact that under the present 40 hour scale the citrus ranchers find it difficult to compete with that rate in obtaining workers.

The supervisors discussed the proposed reduction, but no definite action was taken.

Welfare Group Named

All members of the county welfare commission were re-appointed for another four-year term, with Chairman C. E. Grier highly commending the work of the group during the unemployment crisis.

In the group are Harold J. Caldwell, Ontario; John Andreson, supervisor, of San Bernardino; Mrs. Anna M. Thompson, Chino, and R. H. Stockwell, San Bernardino.

Church Dinner and Bazaar Draw Large Number of Patrons

The cafeteria dinner and sale of Christmas articles held Friday evening in the large social hall in the basement of the Presbyterian church drew a large attendance and provided an evening of pleasure for many persons as well as securing a very satisfactory sum for the Ladies Aid society, which sponsored the event.

The cafeteria dinner was served to many patrons and practically every article was purchased from the apron booth conducted by the Aid society and from the booth of miscellaneous articles supplied and sold by the Frances Paul Girls. The candy booth conducted by the Campfire Girls fared equally as well, and those in charge of the dinner and the sales were well pleased with the results.

Executive Board of Fifth District To Hold Meeting Here

Quarterly meeting of the executive board of the Fifth district, Parent-Teacher association, will be held Friday at the Bethany Union church on San Antonio Heights, it was announced this morning. Mrs. Fred Arth of Redlands is district president.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 and officers and committee chairmen will be present from San Bernardino, Colton, Redlands, Chino, Ontario and Upland. Mrs. J. I. Countryman, chairman of safety, and Mrs. F. L. Warburton, chairman of motion pictures, both of San Antonio Heights, are the local members of the district board.

At noon a luncheon will be served by the girls club of the church.

The city made application for funds through E. Q. Sullivan, district engineer of the state highway commission. Mr. Sullivan has returned from Sacramento, where on Friday he conferred with 11 other district engineers and commission officials concerning the various projects.

In this plan it is proposed that various municipal and county projects throughout the state be authorized for immediate prosecution. The officials will choose the various projects for immediate work.

If the Upland project is chosen approximately $8000 will be expended here, with persons on the unemployed list being given employment.

Ontario's project in this campaign is the re-paving of 12 miles of business and residential streets.

ORCHARD HEATER LAW IS DELAYED

Ontario Places March 1, 1934, As Date for Effectiveness of Measure

Ontario's ordinance requiring orchard heaters to conform with strict requirements will not become effective until March 1, 1934, as the result of the city council amending the ordinance at last night's meeting.

The council also formally called for the $60,000 bond election, and if the project is favored by two-thirds of the voters, construction of a sewage disposal plant will be started The election will be held Dec. 5.

Mrs. Hamer's Brother Dies in Sacramento

Mrs. Louise Hamer, who was called to Sacramento on Nov. 9 by the critical illness of her brother, Milton Pyle, has notified Mrs. Sadie Benner of her brother's death, the funeral being held in Sacramento on Thursday, Nov. 16. Mr. Pyle, who was 82 years old, was a Mason and he also was a member of Temple chapter, O. E. S. The funeral was largely attended and there were many flowers, including a beautiful bouquet from Mary Newcomb tent No. 23, Daughters of Union Veterans, this being a token of sympathy for Mrs. Hamer, who is a member of Mary Brainard tent in Upland.

Mrs. Hamer probably will remain in Sacramento for some time.

CHAFFEY WORK IN AGRICULTURE BASIS FOR CLUB PROGRAM

Rotarians Hear of Wide Scope of Work in Meeting This Noon

PERRIN AND CLAPP SPEAK

An unusual program featured the meeting of the Upland Rotary club today noon at the Sycamore Inn. Members and guests were given a glimpse of what the agricultural department of Chaffey means to the community and to the students who take advantage of the opportunities afforded them there.

Rotary President Orton Brady turned the meeting over to Fred H. Clapp and C. A. Perrin. Mr. Clapp noted a number of outstanding features of Chaffey in which that well known educational institution has pioneered, among them being play day and the junior fair, the latter being known as the biggest little fair in the world. Mr. Clapp then presented Mr. Perrin, who is head of the high school agricultural department, who noted briefly the history of agriculture from a teaching standpoint, also passing slides among those present depicting various phases of the department and its development.

Mr. Perrin paid a deserved tribute to Dr. Merton E. Hill, who he said was the first to introduce agriculture into the public schools and also in introducing other departments which have since been installed in many of the best schools.

Agriculture was introduced at Chaffey in 1912, said Mr. Perrin. The next year Mr. Booth came to the school. At that time there were six students enrolled in agriculture as compared with about 165 at this time. The junior farm center was organized in 1919 and this later became the Future Farmers of America. Mr. Perrin stated that when it became necessary to secure a successor to Dr. Hill the board went to Chaffey's strongest competitor and assured his hearers that under President Gardiner Spring the same progressive spirit is prevailing and the school will continue to advance.

On exhibit today were cups won at the Pomona fair, a large percent of the awards of that exhibition this year coming to Chaffey. In 1922 at the International Live Stock Show

METHODISTS WILL OBSERVE MILESTONE

36th Anniversary of Forming of Sunday School To Be Marked Wednesday

Thirty-seven years ago tomorrow the Sunday school of the Upland Methodist church was organized and in recognition of that event a unique program will be presented in Fellowship hall of the church Wednesday night.

With several of those participating in the first meeting present, events of Nov. 22, 1896, will be recalled. For example, the school's original quartet will appear in selections, the group including Miss Ethel Leeke, Ralph Marr, E. W. Ketcheson and Fannie Gay. Mrs. P. E. Walline, Mrs. Gay's mother, who accompanied for the quartet, will be at the piano tomorrow night.

The anniversary program is in keeping with the series of church night programs held in Fellowship hall every Wednesday night. Potluck dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m., with song service and a devotional service to follow until 8 p. m., when the special program will be presented. Mrs. Gay is chairman of the anniversary committee.

Owen E. Atwood will preside during the special program. Accounts of the early days will be given by some of the charter members of the school, including J. Fred Anderson, J. J. Atwood and J. M. Hartley, the latter a former superintendent.

Public Opinion in Reverse

Already it begins to seem that it won't be long until the country is going to have its "tummy" full of this repeal of prohibition. Conditions are noticeably worse throughout the country—drunkenness is on the increase and the number of arrests has also increased largely, in many metropolitan centers especially. We have been told that many of the persons arrested on reckless driving charges have been under the influence of liquor.

Speaking of these conditions, the San Bernardino Sun recently remarked editorially: "Everything begins to indicate that we will have saloons in abundance and perhaps the sooner they come the quicker an overwhelming majority of the American people will reach the conclusion that, after all, once in a while progress, by some hook or crook of public sentiment, gets into 'reverse'."

The Telegram, evening paper at San Bernardino, discusses present conditions as follows:

Uncle Sam's job with reference to the liquor traffic does not end with repeal of the prohibition amendment.

Twenty-eight states in the Union are still dry by their own legislative enactment and will continue to be until changed by the action of those states themselves. The Federal government has a solemn covenant with them to cooperate with their enforcement officers to prevent the shipment of liquor across their state lines for consumption therein.

What success the United States government will have in blocking the wet trade at the border lines of these commonwealths depends altogether upon the strength of the prohibition sentiment in those sections.

If a majority of the people is content with state prohibition and want to see it enforced, there is no doubt it can and will be to a degree. If a majority opposes prohibition, even though it is on the statute books, any attempt of the United States government to prevent liquor from entering those commonwealths will be just as costly and just as futile as was the effort at prohibition.

It is the chief tenet of our American democracy that the people must have what they desire whether they ought to have it or not. Also, the only authority that can decide whether they ought to have it or not consists of themselves. Any attempt to set up an official or unofficial mandate has always failed. It always will because, after all, government was made for the people and not the people for the government.

Real Estate at the Bottom

In one of its recent releases, the always-cautious Standard Statistics Company, which makes a business of fact-finding uninfluenced by opinion or prejudice, reports that real estate values are extremely deflated, that building costs are rising, and that the time is highly opportune for construction as an investment.

It's difficult to see how, under any imaginable circumstances, real estate values could sink lower. They've touched the absolute bottom—now they're moving up. And construction, under the spur of recovery plans, has started to move out of the doldrums that kept the industry at a standstill for three years, and is reaching sounder levels.

Bankrupt prices aren't going to be offered us much longer. In the near future we're going to pay twenty or fifty or a hundred per cent more to build and repair than we would have to pay now. We're going to pay more for land, lumber, roofing materials, cement, heating equipment—everything needed for home building.

Yes, it's really the time to build. Opportunity is knocking now more loudly than it ever knocked before—and thousands of people with money to spend are taking advantage of it. As for those other thousands who have the money but prefer to "wait and see," well, they might meditate on the fact that by the time they do find out that things are really changing it will probably be too late to do anything about it.

What Do You Know About Money

Strangely enough, there's no economic subject the average citizen knows less about than money. He uses it daily, but the tokens with which he barters aren't really money at all. Their only value lies in the credit of the government issuing them. Real money is seldom seen—it is gold and is jealously hoarded by treasuries.

As a result, the average citizen was pretty well puzzled when the U. S. government announced that it had started a world gold buying campaign in an effort to raise commodity prices. He couldn't see the connection. As a matter of fact, the connection is simple enough if simply explained—it's very much like an auction. The more people you get to bid for an object, the more valuable it becomes. That's true of gold. When the United States went into the market there was another bidder for the yellow metal, and its price rose accordingly. At the same time, the value of the dollar, which has a definite gold backing, declined, and commodity prices went up. Briefly described, the dollar has been cheapened and it is worth less wheat, clothing or gasoline than it was a while ago.

In all probability football fans have been pondering over the gigantic proposition as to what might have happened to the Trojans of U. S. C. had that train which brought the Stanford warriors to the scene of massacre not been stalled and had the pigskin packers got their allotted night's sleep before the slaughter. And Head Man Jones admits his men were outfought and outwitted and lays the defeat to the fact that some of his men broke training. As a result there has been a grand shakeup in the Trojan team. One of the first string men has been "kicked off the squad" and several have been demoted to the second and third strings. With the further result that some of the second and third string men have stepped up to the point where they are getting the first call. With football as in business and professional life you can't do your best if you break training and don't live up to the rules of the game. You may think you are "getting by" but sooner or later the defects show up and you are numbered with the second and third raters.

You have never heard real bragging unless you have listened to the fat lady who has taken off twenty pounds by heroic dieting.

In many instances the fellow who can tell how the country should be run is the one whose wife "takes in boarders."

If you have any trouble getting your wife to listen to you when you talk—just try talking in your sleep.

Dessert Bridge Will Be Given Thursday by Woman's Club

Plans for a delightful afternoon at the Upland Woman's club house Thursday are attracting attention from the club members and their friends.

Opening at 1 o'clock with the serving of a delectable dessert course, a bridge party will be held, arrangements for the benefit being in the hands of Mrs. Frank M. Baxter and her committee.

The bridge playing will begin at an early hour in order that those who so desire may leave at 3:30 to attend the lecture at Chaffey. Others who do not care to attend the lecture may continue their playing.

Mindful of the approaching holiday, the Arts and Crafts section of the club will have on display a collection of handmade articles desirable as Christmas gifts and some member of the section will give instruction in their making.

For those who do not care for bridge, comfortable chairs will be arranged in the north lounge where they may visit while occupied with their needlework.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Baxter, telephone Upland 651-W.

Miss Olive Granger Becomes Bride of Harry Harlow, Jr.

In the presence of relatives and a large gathering of intimate friends, Miss Olive Adele Granger and Harry Baldwin Harlow, Jr., were united in marriage Saturday evening, the scene of the impressive nuptial ceremony being Christ Episcopal church on Euclid avenue in Ontario. The officiant was the Rev. Richard H. Gushee, rector of the church.

Choice lavender chrysanthemums were used on the altar and in the chancel, their loveliness being accentuated by the glow from the tall cathedral candles. Other floral decorations were used to advantage throughout the church.

The pre-ceremony music was a group of violin selections played by Miss Elizabeth King, accompanied by S. Earle Blakeslee.

Announcing the entrance of the bridal party Mr. Blakeslee, at the organ, played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin."

The bride, escorted by her brother, Jack Granger, who gave her in marriage, wore a costume of white lace and satin, fashioned from her mother's wedding gown, and a short lace veil. Her flowers were orchids and white rosebuds and her only jewel ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, they having belonged to his mother.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her cousin, Miss Barbara Seares of San Mariao, who was attired in pale green taffeta and carried a bouquet of blue and purple delphinium, lavender sweetpeas and pink rosebuds.

The bridesmaids were Miss Florence Brownridge, Miss Clara Kate Owens and Miss Marcia Huber, of Santa Ana, and Miss Zoe Claubes of Porterville, all being former schoolmates and sorority sisters of the bride. They each were charmingly gowned in velvet creations of hyacinth blue, lavender, mauve lavender and old rose, respectively, and each carried a colonial bouquet of lavender and purple pansies.

The sisters of the bride, the Misses Peggy and Mary Granger, were the dainty flower girls, being attired in frocks of pink pompadour silk. Serving in the chancel as acolytes were the bride's small cousins, Tom and Ned DuVall and Charles Seares.

The bridegroom was attended by Kenneth Callow of Ontario as best man and the ushers were Nelson Gray of Upland, David Gilman and William Graber of Ontario, and Ted Tibbot, a cousin of the bridegroom, of Los Angeles.

As the recessional at the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. Blakeslee played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

A reception was held at the home of the bride's step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Arden, 126 East Fourth street, with relatives and intimate friends attending.

The bride, who is well known in social circles in the west-end and among university groups, is the daughter of the late Edmund Hatcher Granger and Mrs. Arden, and also is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Huehn and of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Granger, residents of Upland. She attended Scripps college in Claremont and graduated from the University of Washington. Since her return from the university she has been active in welfare work in San Bernardino county.

Mr. Harlow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Harlow, 120 Harvard place, Ontario, and graduated from the University of Oregon after attending St. Mary's college. He now is field representative for the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

Upon their return from a motor honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow will make their home in Pomona.

In a wedding of simple though very charming arrangements, Miss Freeda L. Musselman became the bride of Albert P. Schmidt Sunday afternoon, the ceremony taking place in Escondido at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. John Kracher, long-time friends of the bride's family.

Accompanied by a number of their relatives, Mr. Schmidt and Miss Musselman left Upland after church services Sunday morning and motored to Escondido, near San Diego, where they were welcomed at the Kracher home.

The rooms were attractively decorated for the nuptial occasion, large white chrysanthemums and tricolaena rosea in delicate pink shade being complemented with tall candles, which marked the improvised altar.

At 4:30 o'clock the ceremony was held, Mrs. Emil Horsch, sister of the bridegroom, playing the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" and the Rev. Mr. Kracher, a Methodist minister, performing the marriage service, the scene being illumined only by candlelight. The couple was unattended.

The bride was lovely in a blue tailored ensemble with gray fox fur and all other accessories in gray. She carried an arm bouquet of pink and white rosebuds and maidenhair fern.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding collation was served, the menu including a handsome bride's cake supplied by the bride's sister, and an equally handsome groom's cake, brought by the sisters of the bridegroom.

The bride is a graduate of the Dickins county, Kan., high school and studied music at the Central Wesleyan college in Warrenton, Mo. She is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Froelich of West Twentieth street.

Agricultural Work at Chaffey Is Reviewed

in Chicago a member of Chaffey's judging team stood highest of all judgers in the country, while in 1929 the local judging team won the only judging contest ever carried off by any school in California.

A demonstration of how the judging is done was given at the meeting, this feature also adding a decidedly humorous situation to the program. Classes in poultry, beef cattle, dairy cattle and hogs were judged, various members of the club being picked to represent the animals. The young men doing the judging were Jim Elsea, Don Currey, Chas. Morrison and Wm Smale. As the various reasons for rating these "animals" were recited by the young men the club was kept in somewhat of an uproar of laughter, the distinguishing features of each "animal" as designated being very applicable to the persons being judged.

The club members heartily greeted Gene Grier, this being his first appearance at a meeting since his critical illness of almost three months.

With Juan Ramirez, 694 Twelfth street, dead as the result of knife wounds, Frank Zuniga, San Bernardino, is today being held on murder charges. Altercation between the two men is asserted to have occurred in the county seat Nov. 12.

MEN'S MISSIONARY MOVE IS SUPPORTED

Rev. J. A. Climenhaga Stresses Today's Need—Siegrist Is Chosen Head

More than 80 men from the Upland churches met in Fellowship hall of the Methodist church last night in observance of the Laymen's Missionary movement, with an address by Rev. J. A. Climenhaga, Beulah college instructor, one of the features of the program.

Rev. Climenhaga was a missionary in Africa for more than eight years and in his appealing address he stressed the need of a larger vision and a more devout Christianity as imperative for today. He was introduced by Harvey Wenger.

Brief talks by representatives of each of the local churches on the general theme, "Targets to Aim At," were preliminary to the principal address. Remarks were made by Glenn D. Smith, Episcopal church; L. J. Horsch, Mennonite; William Bealey, Presbyterian; Robert Armstrong, Methodist; Alvin Eschelman, Brethren, and Edwin Motsinger, Nazarene.

J. H. Siegrist, who served as general chairman of the meeting, was chosen permanent chairman of the organization to serve until next year. He was elected by representatives of the churches, who will assist during the year and in the plans for the 1934 meeting. This group, besides Mr. Siegrist of the Presbyterian church, includes Harvey Wenger, Brethren; D. J. Dahlem, Mennonite; T. E. Ketcheson, Nazarene; D. J. Cameron, Methodist, and G. A. Hanson, Episcopal.

Walter Roeben appeared in violin selections in a very pleasing manner, and the orchestra of the Nazarene church opened the dinner meeting with several selections.

Play Presented in Brilliant Way by Cucamonga Group

The Cucamonga Community Players and their coach, Judge James Sharp, added much to their already well established reputation with a truly brilliant production of the three-act comedy, "Aunt Sophia's Will," presented Friday evening in the auditorium of the Cucamonga Central school.

The auditorium was unable to accommodate the crowd that gathered to see the play, even all the standing space being taken, and the attendance being estimated at 300 or more.

Two factors, the native talent and experience of the players and the able direction of Judge Sharp, plus much hard work, made possible the splendid success of the production.

The comedy called for swift action and every member of the cast responded with enthusiasm, not one hesitancy, not one dragging moment nor one error marring the performance.

Members of the cast were Miss Luella Whitney, Mrs. H. G. Klusman, Jr., Mrs. F. J. Biane, Miss Dorothy Owings, Marvin Wangler, William Parsons, Rudolph Brummond, Wallace Stoebe and George McCarty, and each one gave an excellent accounting of his part.

The specialty numbers were a tap dance given by Naomi Krick and Jack Kirkpatrick between the first and second act, and a clever solo dance between the second and third act by Jack Kirkpatrick, who is a pupil of the Dorothy Williams dance studio. The dancers were accompanied by George Duley of the studio. The Sycamore Inn orchestra also entertained the audience between acts and at the conclusion of the play the orchestra played for an hour of dancing.

This was the first of a series of plays to be given by the Community Players as benefits for the welfare work carried on by the Cucamonga Service club, the Cucamonga Community church and the Central P.-T. A.

The second play will be presented in the early spring for the benefit of the church.

An excellent turkey dinner was served at the noon hour and interesting council sessions were held.

Some time was devoted to hearing reports on the activities of the various units made by the unit presidents and committee chairmen.

At the conclusion of the reports, Mrs. Thos. E. Howarton, member of the Upland unit and California delegate to the national convention in Chicago, gave an interesting report of the convention and Mrs. Earl E. In the group attending the meeting were Mrs. Herbert, president; Mrs. Chas. V. Benson, Mrs. W. J. Larkin, Mrs. Thos. E. Howarton, Mrs. Earl E. Marsh, Mrs. Sam L. Lamb, Mrs. Harvey McMasters, Mrs. L. Convention Reports and Address Heard at W.C.T.U. Meeting

During the morning session of the all-day meeting held Friday by the W. C. T. U., the usual routine business was conducted with Mrs. T. J. Cromer presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Fred Hoppe, and Mrs. L. C. Wilhoite made a comprehensive report of the first day of the W. C. T. U. state convention held recently in Hollywood.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Clara Perrin on Laurel avenue and at the noon hour a contributed luncheon was served.

When the meeting was resumed in the afternoon, Mrs. Wilhoite conducted a devotional service and Dr. Irvin A. Engle, pastor of the Methodist church, addressed the group on adult education with reference to narcotics, alcohol and tobacco. Mrs. C. E. Spies gave an interesting report of other sessions of the convention and Mrs. Ralph H. Marr, accompanied by Mrs. Fannie Gay, sang "Speak It for the Savior." The members then spent some time in practicing a new W. C. T. U. song, "We've Just Begun to Fight."

Plans were made for the next meeting, when an especially interesting program will be given, the details yet to be completed.

Use of Reference Books Is Studied by Library Club

Saturday morning the Upland Library club held its monthly meeting in the public library. All the members were present to enjoy and benefit from a discussion on library reference books conducted by Miss Uarda Hill, advisor of the club. The value and use of dictionaries and standard encyclopaedias in the reference department of any library was realized and appreciated after the members had browsed over the books and answered a questionnaire on "Library Reference Tools."

The purpose of the club is to introduce "the prospective librarians" to various types of activities performed in a library. Therefore, this meeting differed greatly from the others which were devoted primarily to work on library posters.

Last month's meeting was especially interesting since the chief activity included the making of posters and book ends for "Children's Book Week," observed last week at the library. These artistic creations are now on display in the juvenile department.

At the close of Saturday's program a brief business meeting was called to order by the president, Bonney Linsley. Plans for future work in the club were discussed; then the group was adjourned.

Those present were the Misses Bonney Linsley, Jane Craig, Charlemagne Holderby, Dorothy Jean Beattie, Jean Benson, Kathryne Thomas, and Uarda Hill.

Cyclorama Is Soon To Be Property of Junior High School

A cyclorama is needed for the Upland junior high school.

No, a cyclorama is not a flower or a new reference book. It is a certain type of curtain needed as a backdrop for the stage in the auditorium of the school building.

The Junior High Parent-Teacher association and the pupils of that school are cooperating in an effort to secure funds with which to purchase the material for the curtain, to be made up by the P.-T. A. members.

Under the direction of several of the teachers, the pupils are to present an entertainment Friday night that will include a variety of delightful numbers.

Two one-act plays will be given by pupils of the ninth grade under the direction of Miss Margaret Crosby. The members of the casts have been practicing faithfully and will be prepared to present smooth-running, rapid-action plays.

The two school orchestras, directed by Fred Wilding, will contribute several numbers to the program and those not already acquainted with the accomplishments of these orchestras are due for a pleasant surprise. Their performances is excellent.

Other outstanding numbers will be a group of vocal selections. The singers, who have surprisingly splendid and well trained voices, will be a boys chorus directed by Miss Bernice Colton and a girls chorus under the direction of Miss Lysle Merchant.

Aside from the pleasure gained from the entertainment, it will be well worth while for the parents and friends of the pupils to see the splendid manner in which these enthusiastic young people perform.

There also will be a candy sale held in the corridor.

Mrs. D. R. Kilbourne and Mrs. Roy Karr are in charge of ticket sales and tickets may be secured at Atwoods and Safeway. Mrs. Kilbourne will be at the school on Wednesday afternoon with tickets for the pupils.

Let the advertisements help you make your shopping plans. tf

Why Liquid Laxatives Do You No Harm

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement, and with no discomfort at the time, or afterward.

The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it!

An approved liquid laxative (one which is most widely used for both adults and children) is syrup pepsin. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna—a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help, as they do in the case of cathartics containing mineral drugs. Ask your druggist for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Member N. R. A.

BETTER BOOKS FOR CHILDREN RELEASED

Upland Library Has Many New Books to Fascinate Its Young Readers

Ever since the Pilgrims landed on New England's rocky coast, Indian legends and tales have been a part of American folk lore. But it was not until ships began searching up the western coast of the continent that the white men encountered the Haidas, the Chilcats and the other tribes on the coast of what is now southern Alaska and British Columbia. They had proud records for handicraft. Their hand-woven blankets and baskets were seized upon by eager traders. But because they are so far removed from the centers of population, the romance and lore of these Indians have been neglected by authors and artists. But now Lurline Mayol has written "The Big Canoe," a book about the Haidas and their neighbors as they were when the white traders first came.

Sometimes when an author writes an adventure story he has to use his imagination to make his adventures exciting enough. But when Frederic Litten began "Rhodes of the Ninety-fourth," he had so many real adventures to choose from that his only problem was to fit them into the story. Jimmie Rhodes is a real army flier, although that is not his real name. Boys will be happy indeed to meet such a young man, although he lives only in the pages of a book.

Jack and Matt are two little brothers who live in the Rocky Mountains in Montana. In the winter they live in town and go to school just as every boy and girl does everywhere. But in the summer, the minute school is out, they are off to the WX, the big cattle and sheep ranch which belongs to their father. There they have a busy, happy time all summer long, riding their cow-ponies, helping the cowboys, fishing, camping, picnicing. The story of one of their vacations on the ranch is told in the book called "Jack and Matt of the WX".

"Beauty lies on the land like a visible light, for the land is Italy." And with that beautiful opening sentence as an invitation, young readers will follow Caroline Snedeker to ancient Saminum to meet Chloe in "The Forgotten Daughter." Chloe, whose father was a wealthy Roman and whose mother belonged to a proud Greek family from the island of Lesbos, is a slave girl living in a dreary windowless hut high on a wooded mountain. For Chloe, all the beauty of this ancient Samnium hillside is blotted out by the enforced monotony of endless hours of weaving. There is mystery in Chloe's story and romance, too, and so vividly has Mrs. Snedeker told her story that Chloe, half-Greek and half-Roman, daughter of an almost forgotten age, is a friend readers will turn to many times.

Following is a partial list of new books added in honor of Good Book Week. They were on display during the past week and were released for circulation on Monday.

CHAFFEY IN LINE TO DECIDE TITLE

Outcome of Riverside Game on Thanksgiving Here Will Rank Teams

Thanksgiving day will see the next—and the last football game on Graber field in 1933.

Chaffey junior college will have an opportunity on that day to decide the fate of the league leadership. Riverside will be the opponent. If the Panthers win, Chaffey and Citrus junior colleges will tie for the league honor. If Riverside wins, Riverside will take the crown and carry on the grid battle in a southland series.

Citrus defeated Fullerton last week to end its season with one defeat and one tie. Riverside and Santa Ana are now on top of the list, each with four wins and one loss. Chaffey has won three games, lost one and tied one. Citrus and Chaffey played to a tie in the early season.

Riverside and Chaffey are historic rivals and all the class and atmosphere of "big" games will be seen on Graber field when the elevens tangle Nov. 30.

Chaffey's game with Pomona ended disastrously for the neighboring eleven. The final score was 47 to 0, favoring Coach Bert Heiser's men.

Double Bill To Be Shown Tonight and Tomorrow, Is Plan

Due to the popularity of a double bill, originally scheduled at the Studio theatre for tomorrow only, the showing of "Shanghai Madness" and "The Wrecker," will be presented here tonight and tomorrow, according to an announcement today by Garey Carr, theatre manager.

"Too Much Harmony" had been scheduled for tonight, but the change will bring Spencer Tracy and Fay Wray in "Shaighai Madness" and Jack Holt in "The Wrecker," the latter picture having been filmed at Long Beach after the recent earthquake.

This double bill will provide excellent entertainment for theatre fans of the district and it was with much pleasure that the theatre management was able to make the change in the previously announced schedule.
